Art/Design and Technology

Amy Warhol

Amy Warhol made popular art (Pop Art) by drawing things that people saw every day. Then he would make them different.

Can you draw a food object or package in your home four times and change all the colours each time?

History/Geography

This week I want to do something a little bit different.

I am not going to teach you about history, I want you to tell me about something historical. I want you to think of something you have learnt in history lessons or seen on TV and then draw me a poster with pictures and facts about this period. It could be a Roman Soldier or Florence Nightingale. It could be World War 2 or The Stone Age.

Science

What is a balanced diet?

This diagram is the Eatwell Plate. Find out about the 5 food groups.

You choose how you want to share the information, e.g. writing an information leaflet, a poster or use Google Classroom to create a Slides document (share it with your class teacher)

PSHE

'Healthy Living' Superhero

How many superheroes can you think of? What do they look like? Do they have anything in common? What makes them different from each other?

Think about a healthy lifestyle.

What does it mean? How can we stay healthy?

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/clips/zw3jxsg>

Produce a mind map of everything that you can do to keep healthy.

What would a 'healthy living' superhero look like? What would be their special qualities? How would they dress?

Design your own 'healthy living' superhero. What might your 'healthy living' superhero say to encourage you to keep healthy? For example, "Drink water every day."

Spelling/Phonics

Mr Warhurst's Group go to Google Classroom and find Spelling Unit 9. Either print it off or just answer the questions in your book.

Mrs Lovelock's Group please practice the air sound. For example hair, stair, fair, lair and flair

Both Groups, this is well worth watching.
