Viking Shields

The Vikings used shields as a way of showing their own style and to recognise each other in battle.

Viking Runes

The Vikings wrote in a language we now call Runic. It was a language that could be carved into wood or stone. The runes above are NOT perfect examples

Can you design your own shield?

and not accurate. However, they give a good understanding. I would like you to write some messages to a friend in runes and see if they can translate it.

Science

PSHE

Floating.

The Vikings were renowned sailors. Their ships took them all around the world because they were so well designed. Can you design and make a boat out of paper that can carry a small weight in water?

Try this

The Vikings were known for their bravery. Can you think of a time you did something you were scared to do but are now glad you did?

Draw me a picture of this.

Spelling/Phonics

Mr Warhurst's Group go to Google Classroom and find Spelling Unit 10. Either print it off or just answer the questions in your book.

Mrs Lovelock's Group please practice the ir sound. For example whirl, girl twirl, first, skirt, shirt etc

Both Groups, this is well worth watching.

Vocabulary

Can you find five words for how the birds acted towards the Bigger bird?

Explain

Why do you think the little birds were so cruel to the new bird?

Prediction

What do you think the little birds will have to do now they are naked?

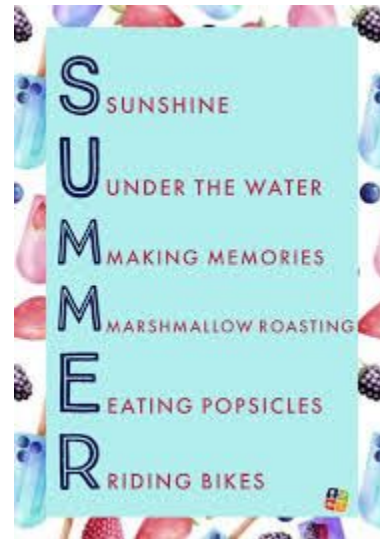

Summarise

Give me a review of this story, telling me what you liked or did not like.

Writing

Can you write an acrostic poem for the word VIKING? An acrostic poem is a poem where you write a word and then use the letters to make the poem. Like these.
